2. AFFILIATE OBLIGATIONS

2.1 Registering as Affiliate

By submitting an Affiliate Application and checking the respective box, you agree to the terms and conditions of the Affiliate Agreement. The Affiliate Application is an essential part of the agreement.

We have the exclusive right to accept or reject an Affiliate Application, and our decision is final and non-negotiable. You will be notified by email about the status of your application.

At any point during the Affiliate Agreement, we may require you to provide documentation to verify your Affiliate Application and Account information. Examples of such documentation include bank statements, identity papers (individual or corporate), and proof of address.

It is your responsibility to ensure that all the information provided during registration is accurate and kept up-to-date at all times.

2.2 Affiliate login details

You are solely responsible for keeping your Affiliate Account login details confidential and secure at all times. If your login information is not properly guarded and unauthorized use of your Affiliate Account occurs, you will be solely responsible for any resulting activity under your Affiliate Account user ID and password, whether or not it was undertaken by you. You must promptly notify us if you suspect any illegal or unauthorized use of your Affiliate Account.

2.3 Affiliate Program participation

As an affiliate, you are required to participate directly in the program. Any attempts to open an account for a third party or to broker or transfer an account is not allowed. If you wish to transfer an account to another owner, you must first request permission from us. Additionally, you may not open more than one affiliate account unless we provide written consent.

By agreeing to join the affiliate program, you must actively promote and advertise the company websites according to the affiliate agreement and instructions from the company. It is your responsibility to ensure that all activities carried out under the affiliate agreement are in the company's best interest and do not harm its reputation or goodwill.

You are permitted to advertise on our behalf by linking to the company websites using approved affiliate links or other materials that we may authorize from time to time. This is the only permitted method of advertising.

2.4 Affiliate Website

As an affiliate, you will be fully responsible for creating, operating, and maintaining your own Affiliate Website, as well as ensuring that all materials appearing on it comply with applicable laws, such as the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), and are presented in a professional manner.

It is important that your Affiliate Website does not create confusion with the Company Websites or give the impression that it is owned or operated by the Company.

Furthermore, your Affiliate Website must not contain any inappropriate or offensive content, such as defamatory, discriminatory, violent, obscene, derogatory, or pornographic material, or content that is considered illegal in the target country.

2.5 Valid traffic and good faith

These clauses outline various rules and restrictions regarding how the affiliate can generate traffic to the company's websites. The affiliate must use their best efforts to advertise, market, and promote the company websites in compliance with all applicable laws and in a professional manner. The affiliate website should not contain any defamatory, discriminatory, or unsuitable content, nor should it be presented in a way that causes confusion with the company websites.

The affiliate is prohibited from using branded keys for placement of contextual advertising and cannot generate traffic to the company websites by registering as a new customer or by benefiting from traffic not generated in good faith. If the affiliate suspects any new customer referred by them is engaged in bonus abuse, money laundering, fraud, or other abuse of remote gaming websites, they must immediately notify the company.

If more than 30% of new customers of the affiliate's total traffic volume made only a minimum first deposit during the current month, then such traffic may be considered as motivated, and the company has the right not to pay the commission for such traffic. If 20% of new customers of the affiliate's total traffic volume are bonus abusers, money launderers, fraudsters, or assist in any form of affiliate fraud, then no commission shall be payable in relation to the affiliate's entire traffic.

The company has the right to suspend the affiliate's traffic to check its quality and for fraud. If the company suspends the traffic, all new customers who register after the suspension notification will not count as valid new customers, and no commission will be payable in relation to such new customers.

The company can also cancel the partner's current deal and set a new one unilaterally, notifying the partner one bank day in advance if the traffic quality or conversion rate is low, which may lead to a negative balance. All subsequent traffic brought by the partner will be paid under the conditions of the new deal after cancellation.

It is strictly prohibited to feature our Intellectual Property in any digital advertisements or Affiliate Links on websites that are deemed unsuitable. This includes websites that target children, showcase illegal sexual acts or pornography, promote violence or discrimination based on gender, race, religion, nationality, disability, age, or sexual orientation, or promote illegal activities. Furthermore, any use of our Intellectual Property must comply with relevant advertising regulations and codes of practice in any territory where such advertisements may appear, and should not infringe upon the intellectual property rights of any third party or the Company.

Using any advertising layout or creative that includes our Intellectual Property Rights is not allowed unless you have received it directly from the Company or have obtained written approval from the Company beforehand if you have created the advertising layouts yourself. You are responsible for obtaining approval from the Company before launching any advertising campaign or creative and must provide evidence of such approval upon request.
